

OGC Has Reviewed

8 February 1951

MEMORANDUM FOR: DIRECTOR OF TRAINING
STATINTL
SUBJECT: [REDACTED]

STATINTL

STATINTL

1. General Donovan sent [REDACTED] to talk to me about guidance on his career. [REDACTED] is presently studying at the Advanced School of International Studies in Washington and will graduate in June. At that time he expects to be inducted into the Service. He feels his education and inclinations will qualify him for the intelligence field, and he would like to know what the probabilities are of getting into military intelligence after induction.

STATINTL

STATINTL

2. After my discussion with [REDACTED] of your office, I told [REDACTED] I would send you a memorandum of his case and that he should keep us immediately and completely informed of any move made in connection with military service.

STATINTL

STATINTL

3. [REDACTED] has had an interview with [REDACTED] of Personnel and was asked to file Personal History Statement forms for use after induction. He will, therefore, inform Personnel of his whereabouts and they, in turn, can keep you informed.

4. I am sending Personnel a copy of this memorandum.

LAWRENCE R. HOUSTON
General Counsel

LRHouston/ml1

cc: Personnel